Pastor's Reflections

The rich and the poor. Christ drives home the dangers of inequality in the distribution of wealth. The rich man will be punished in the next life because of his indifference to the poor man who lay hungry at the gate of his house.

Luxury and holiness are very rarely found together. We must share our goods just as we are obliged to try to share our faith in Christ with others through the manner in which we live our lives.

Reflexiones del Párroco

Los ricos y los pobres. Cristo lleva a casa los peligros de la desigualdad en la distribución de la riqueza. El hombre rico será castigado en la próxima vida debido a su indiferencia hacia el pobre hombre que yacía hambriento en la puerta de su casa.

El lujo y la santidad rara vez se encuentran juntos. Debemos compartir nuestros bienes así como estamos obligados a tratar de compartir nuestra fe en Cristo con los demás a través de la manera en que vivimos nuestras vidas.

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family. Thérèse Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard of age of 15. St. Wenceslaus | September 28

You may know St. Wenceslaus better than you think, he is in fact, the "Good King Wenceslas" from the Christmas carol penned in the 19th century.

He was born in 907 near Prague, the son of the Duke of Bohemia, raised and educated as a Christian by his paternal grandmother, Ludmila, who herself became a saint. The land of Bohemia at this time was a place in turmoil. Christianity had not yet taken hold and there were power struggles even within the noble family. When Saint Wenceslaus' father died, his Christian grandmother became regent. However, his mother who may have been a pagan or at least held anti-Christian sentiments, upset at being overlooked, had Ludmilla killed. Wenceslaus, though young, eventually prevailed.

He ruled from 921-929, working at unification, he supported the Church building many churches, including the rotunda of Saint Vitus at Prague Castle. And like in the carol, he cared for sick, poor, widowed, and orphaned in his kingdom. To make peace with Germany, Wenceslaus recognized King Henry the Fowler as the successor of Charlemagne, which put Bohemia under King Henry. The peace was not a popular move with the non-Christian sects and nobles who wanted to remain outside of German rule.

Legend holds that his brother, Boleslaus the Cruel, led some anti-Christian movements. Whether Boleslaus plotted to murder Saint Wenceslaus or they just had a disagreement that ended in his death, it is generally accepted that the saint was killed by Boleslaus or his men. His last words were to forgive his brother.

Saint Wenceslaus was immediately recognized as a martyr for the faith and sainted. The Holy Roman Emperor Otto I posthumously gave him the title "king." He is the first Czech saint and the patron saint of the Czech state.

13 Day Holy Land & Jordan
Pilgrimage

June 6 - June 18, 2023

Dear Friends,

The Good News of Christ is revealed in history. We know God and God's saving power through words that were spoken and events that occurred at particular times and places in the Holy Land. I invite you to come with us and visit the places where the history of our salvation was played out, the places where Jesus taught and worked His signs, where He offered Himself in sacrifice, and where He rose and ascended. To visit these places and to worship in them connects us with the history of our salvation with a special immediacy, and makes it more real. Jesus was very much aware of His physical surroundings, seeing the place where a teaching was given or parable told can give us a new and more lively understanding of passages that had seemed obscure on paper. I am excited at the opportunity to visit the Holy Land and to share with you the wonder and the power of these holy places.

-Fr. Henry Atem

A meditation on Adoration

By Sister Alicia Torres

She was fervent: head bent; eyes closed. At times, her hands rested upon her heart, at other times they clasped the handle of the stroller, gently rocking her little one. Her presence was simple, yet sincere, before the Divine Presence.

No matter the day of the week, nor the late-night hour, she seemed to always be there, keeping vigil. Silent. She silently breathed before her Lord as her silent children rested in her sight. I dared not to lift the veil over her heart, nor presume to understand the language of love she shared with Christ.

Sixteen years later, I do not quite keep a midnight watch, but lately I have remembered this young mother who taught me so much in a humble adoration chapel off of Ashland Avenue. As I keep silent vigil before Jesus, hidden in the Eucharist, I have begun to sense and embrace the veil over my own heart — that hidden place meant for only Jesus and me. I do not tend my own sleeping children, yet I do bring so many little ones to the feet of Jesus, begging for their freedom and healing.

I was only just discovering all those years ago who Jesus is, and who he was calling me to be. Isn't it a lovely recollection: that a young mother with whom I never exchanged any words was the first person to truly teach me what it means to adore Jesus in the Holy Eucharist — and how to be loved by Him?
